

Case Study:1 The Girl & the Sailor

Title: “The Girl, the Old Man, and the Sailor”

(A story that echoes the tragedy of Titanic...)

☀️ It was a bright sunny day...

Five people set out for a casual afternoon trip in a small boat—

👧 A young girl,

💍 Her lover and fiancé,

👫 The fiancé’s best friend,

👴 A wise old man,

🚤 And a mysterious sailor.

Suddenly...

⚡ The sky turned dark!

🌩️ A massive storm struck.

The boat started rocking dangerously...

🌊 And eventually... it sank.

! Miraculously, all five survived.

They split into two small lifeboats:

🚤 Boat One:

👧 The girl, 👴 the old man, and 🚤 the sailor.

🚤 Boat Two:

💍 The fiancé and 👫 his best friend.

The two boats drifted apart...

One reached an isolated island. The other landed on a nearby island.

Both islands were visible to each other, but separated by deep, dangerous waters. 🌊

🌴 The Girl's Island —

Each day, the girl sat silently by the shore, her eyes fixed on the distant island...

where she believed—or at least hoped—her beloved fiancé still waited for her. 🗣️ ❤️

But there was a problem—

🚤 The lifeboat was broken.

Without repairs, there was no way to reach her lover.

Desperate, she ran to the sailor—

🗣️: “Please, fix the boat! I must go to my fiancé!”

🚤 The sailor calmly replied:

“I will fix it... but only on one condition.

You must spend one night with me.”

😬 The girl turned pale!

She screamed—

🗣️ “Do you not have a mother or sister? How can you even say this?”

But the sailor was silent...

He stared coldly.

Trembling, the girl ran to the old man—

“Please guide me. What should I do?”

👴 The old man replied quietly—

🗣️ “I cannot decide for you...

Follow your heart.”

😞 The girl was torn apart...

“To reach her love, or to preserve her dignity?

What should she choose?”

Finally...

👧 She chose love.

She agreed to the sailor’s condition.

The sailor repaired the boat.

They set out on their journey...

🚤 And reached the other island—

Where 🤵 her fiancé was waiting.

The girl ran into his arms—

“I’ve come back to you!”

At first, the fiancé was overjoyed.

But then,

👧 She told him the truth—

🗣️ “To reach you, I had to spend a night with the sailor.

I sacrificed my dignity to get you back.

Because I love you.”

🤵 The fiancé’s face turned red with anger.

🔥 He pushed her away—

🗣️ “You are not worthy of my love!

You are impure... You betrayed me!”

💔 The girl broke down in tears.
She walked away... alone...
Along the dark seashore...

After walking nearly half a kilometer,
👥 The fiancé's best friend came and said—

🗣️ "I know what happened.
I will stay by your side...
Until everything is okay again.
I will take care of you."

---

🗣️ But the story doesn't end here...
Now comes the real question:

---

🔍 Who is the hero in this story? Who is the villain?
Whom do you respect, and whom do you dislike?

---

🧠 Discussion Questions (Group Exercise / Brainstorming):

- 1 Was the girl's decision right?
  - 2 Was the sailor evil, or just a realist taking advantage of the situation?
  - 3 Was the fiancé's reaction fair, or was his love conditional?
  - 4 Was the old man right to stay neutral?
  - 5 Was the best friend truly helping... or did he have selfish motives?
-

📄 Exercise: Ranking the Characters

Rank the five characters —

👴 The Old Man, 🚤 The Sailor, 🧒 The Girl, 💍 The Fiancé, 👥 The Friend — from most respectable (1) to least respectable (5)

👉 Create a ranking like this:

	My Ranking	Ranking by Other Members of My Team
		1	2	3	4	5	6
The Sailor
The Woman
The Old Man
The Fiance
The Fiance's Best Friend

👉 Ask your group members to fill in their own ranks too.

Discuss the reasoning behind your rankings!

1 Note: You have to provide your details analysis, logic, concept why you ranked them 1 to 5

.Write up your reasons for your ranking:

2 .My key learning from this experience:

3.If you were in this story, who would you want to be in? Who else would be ideal for you?